

Can I run my business from my home?

Yes, about 20% of new small businesses are operated from home. Home-based businesses are subject to many of the laws and regulations as other businesses. You will need to check your city zoning regulations or ordinances. The business may also be subject to local and/or state licensing requirements.