Do you wish to get involved with an area non-profit which is positively affecting the economy of Florida? Are you interested in investing in small businesses that are the strength of our economy? Do you wish to donate to a cause that is doing good work in the community? Then you have come to the right place!

The Florida Women's Business Center is a program of the nonprofit organization Center for Technology, Enterprise and Development (TED Center). Management, oversight, and financial support are provided by the TED Center.

The TED Center was incorporated in October 1992 as a non-profit charitable and educational Community Development Corporation (CDC) organization. The TED Center is dedicated to helping entrepreneurs gain the knowledge and technical skills necessary to begin and grow their businesses. The center offers minority, youth, women-owned, and small and disadvantaged businesses the right mix of resources at each stage of the development cycle. Your support is welcome. Since the FWBC is a part of a non-profit organization, we rely on your assistance to keep our program affordable. The FWBC and TED Center would not exist without the generous support of our corporate, government, foundation, and individual supporters. You can help us continue to provide quality services to families in Florida by making a contribution to the TED Center.
